OKAYAMA Muslim TOURISM

About Okayama Muslim Tourism

This project focuses on all-inclusive tourist locations and services across three areas in Okayama Prefecture: Okayama City, Kibichuo Town, and Maniwa City. The locations and services listed here welcome Muslim guests with unique Muslim-friendly guidelines and promote the well-being and happiness of visitors to Okayama Prefecture.

About the "Peach Mark"

The Peach Mark is a Muslim-friendly symbol used in certified restaurants, hotels, and retail shops in Okayama City, Kibichuo Town, and Maniwa City. This mark provides information on services and products that have features which are helpful for non-Japanese visitors, such as English menus and ingredient lists.

We have chosen PEACH as the symbol because it represents the speciality. The peach is also a popular image of a hero from the Japanese folklore originating from Okayama Prefecture. This hero is called Peach Boy or "Momotaro".

Mochi pizza!

Q How was the farm stay? Tell us how you felt.

We harvested some vegetables at the farm, cooked them for dinner, and we chatted a lot with our host-mother, Micchan. It really resembled our grandma's house. It was so comfortable!

Q What left an impression the most?

Pounding "mochi" and making "mochi pizza"! We put some ingredients and cheese on fresh mochi and cooked it in the pizza oven.... It was really amazing! Mochi became a pizza!

Q What's the difference between staying at a hotel and at a farm stay?

You can experience local culture, nature, and even the smell of Japanese country houses, which you'll never experience at a hotel in the city.

Q Would you recommend this farm stay to your friend? YESSSS!!

Host Families

MICCHAN D-6 MAP

Micchan is a wonderful cook! One of the highlights of this farm stay is cooking together with her using fresh seasonal ingredients. You can learn to make traditional Japanese home-style dishes such as mackerel sushi, sushi rolls, and Sansai Okowa (sticky rice with wild mountain vegetables). Her garden is filled with seasonal flowers, reflecting Japan's four seasons.

Hi, I am Micchan!
We have a very big garden full of vegetables and an outdoor pizza oven.
Let's enjoy cooking together!

What is an "ONSEN"?

Warm and Relaxing! Hot Springs in Yubara Area.

"Onsen" means hot spring. There are many hot springs across Japan and they are very popular. There are many different types of "onsen": the "roten-buro", an open-air bath in which you can enjoy nature and the surrounding scenery; the "kazoku-buro", an indoor private or family bath which can be reserved for private use; and the "ashiyu" in which you can put only your feet in, while keeping your clothes on.

Hot springs often have very high mineral content and are said to be therapeutic and beneficial for health and beauty. Bathing in an "onsen" will surely relieve your fatigue and refresh you.

Hot Spring in Big Nature

"Sunayu" is the landmark of Yubara hot spring located just below the dam of Asahi River where visitors can enjoy the free outdoor baths.

Note for Muslim guests: This hot spring is for all genders. It is not separated into men's and women's baths.
